PREFACE

“Peace begins with a SMILE..”

— Mother Teresa

Dear Reader,

I was Very Fortunate to meet MOTHER TERESA with my family, who enlightened me the POWER of SMILE which motivated me to write a book about Smile.

Even a child can understand SMILE ! I did not know the value and power of Smile, until I realized myself. I thought of this book titled “SMILE & SMILE ALL THE WAY – IT IS TAX FREE” to share my experience to the younger ones to make their LIFE Beautiful, Happy, Smooth, Glorious And Worth Living. What you cannot achieve by using tons of money, you could achieve in a simple Smile but it should be meaningful and timely. We should cultivate a habit of smiling on every situation and spend some time to relieve our stress by cutting jokes with the friends, or hear jokes on TV, or read a book or under any other mode and you will see lot more change in your life style.

This being my 21st book in a row, I am making it very lively and I am sure you will definitely enjoy reading specially the jokes which will make you laugh and laugh till your stomach starts aching. If you think Positively, Sound Becomes Music, Movement Becomes Dance, Mind Becomes Meditation, Smile Becomes Laughter, And Laughter Makes Your Life Full of Celebration. Jubilation in Victory.. Celebration in Success.. Happiness in Unity.. Life continues on its Pre-determined path from time immemorial to time ever lasting. So predictable.. So normal.. So ordinary and yet So Unique. So beautifully magic .. So unbelievably miraculous ... and therefore Smile & Smile all the Way and it's Tax-Free !

I am thankful to my assistant Mr. Prakyath O Daulath for giving the final shape and also thankful to M/s ADVAITH HYUNDAI for sponsoring this book and making it available to you in the shape and the format you like the most.

“All Humans are tourists and God is the Travel agent who has already fixed all the Routes, Reservations and Destination.

“ So! Trust God and Enjoy the trip called LIFE- LIFE IS LIKE A JOURNEY ON A TRAIN . LIFE is not an iPod to listen to your favorite songs . It’s a radio, you must adjust yourself to every frequency and enjoy whatever comes in it.”

No one in this world is pure and perfect. If you avoid people for their small mistakes, you will always be alone, So judge less and love more! Life is from date of birth to date of death. Life is made of millions of moments. You only live once, make the best use of it. What matters is not how long you live but how well you live. When life is like a sour lemon, make the best use of it: make Lemonade”

Ever Wondered - Why did Mona Lisa become one of the most famous paintings of all time? That's a question an incredible amount of people have asked themselves in the past. And one possible answer is this: Because of her Unique

Want to succeed in business, fill up your social calendar, and get more romance into your life? One secret may be in your SMILE.

There may be more to the lyric “Put on a Happy Face” than just a catchy tune — putting on a happy face is absolutely good for you and those around you.

Your SMILE - simple, straightforward, and most important, sincere - can attract more than admiring looks. A Smiling face tells people that you’re an outgoing and intelligent person worth getting to know.

So much more than a pair of upturned lips, the Smile is the most scientifically studied human facial expression. There are 19 different types of Smiles that can be put into two categories: Polite “social” Smile, which engage fewer muscles; sincere “felt” Smiles that use more muscles on both sides of the face.

SMILE costs nothing, but creates much. It enriches those who receive, without impoverishing those who give. It happens in a flash and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever. In fact, People who Smile frequently actually live a longer life — a reported average of seven years longer.

For hundreds of years, it has been acknowledged that “Laughter is the best Medicine”. Breakthrough scientific research is shedding new light on the physiological beneficial effects of humor on health. Laughter can come in handy, whether it’s for dealing with an illness, the pressures of daily living, stress, coping at work even, laughter can dramatically change the quality and outlook of our lives.

Smiling happens without much thought. When you watch a friend do something silly or embarrassing, you smirk. When a police officer lets you off without a ticket, you grin. And when you are recognized for your top performance in academics or at work, you beam. Smiling is a very natural response that shares our happiness with others.

SMILE now! Never mind how hard it has been for you to do so. SMILE now! If you will remember all the time to SMILE now, you will SMILE always. However, a mechanical SMILE will not do. Your SMILE should be a reflection of your inner soul state of ever new joy.

Attitude is just a question of weight.

Pure Love, Sacred Joy, Poetic Imagination, Kindness, Wisdom, Peace, The Bliss Of Meditation, And Happiness In Serving, are felt inwardly first in the mind or the heart, and their beneficial effects are then transmitted by the nervous system throughout the body and thence outward. Do not camouflage the joy of your soul with the veil of sermons and solemn words. Understand and experience the superior joys of the interior life; then everyone around you will feel and benefit from the pure joy that emanate s silently from within your soul.

Babies start Smiling before they are even born. Studies in the UK found that a single SMILE can generate the same amount of brain stimulation that 2,000 chocolate bars or 16,000 Pounds Sterling ($25,000) can, which means a person can feel like a million bucks just by Smiling a certain number a times a day.

SMILE is a wonderful law of nature that the three things which we wish most in life happiness, freedom and peace are always attained by giving them to others.

For the fact, People can recognize SMILEs from up to 300 feet away, making it the most easily recognizable facial expression. More than 50 percent of people say a SMILE is the first thing they notice when they meet someone new — more than eyes, smell, hair or clothes combined!

CAUTION

Smiling is Contagious

That's not just a saying but rather a fact. Based on a Swedish study, people had difficulties frowning when observing other people who smiled. Share a SMILE today!

the history of smiling

Some biologists believe that the SMILE originated millions of years ago as a sign of fear; monkeys and apes, in an attempt to show predators that they were harmless – apparently the barely clenched teeth of this “fear grin” were meant to communicate this harmlessness. This would make the original custom of Smiling something like the handshake, both being used to say: “I am unarmed, so chill out.” On the other hand, in our own day and age, newborn babies have been observed to SMILE involuntarily, or without any external stimuli while they are sleeping; these “reflex Smiles” might contradict the theory that Smiling is something that is learned.

cultural differences

You could be forgiven for thinking that the SMILE has no history; it has always been the same. However, just as different cultures in our own day have different rules about Smiling, so did different societies in the past. In fact, amazing as it might seem, it was only in late eighteenth century France that western civilization discovered the art of the SMILE. In the 'Old Regime of Teeth' which prevailed in Western Europe until then, Smiling was quite literally frowned upon. Individuals were fatalistic about tooth loss, and their open mouths would often have been visually repulsive. Rules of conduct dating back to Antiquity disapproved of the opening of the mouth to express feelings in most social situations. Open and unrestrained Smiling was associated with the impolite lower orders.

While Smiling is perceived as a positive emotion most of the time, there are many cultures that perceive Smiling as a negative expression and consider it unwelcoming. Too much Smiling can be viewed as a sign of shallowness or dishonesty. Japanese people may SMILE when they are confused or angry. In other parts of Asia, people may SMILE when they are embarrassed. Some people may SMILE at others to indicate a friendly greeting. A SMILE may be reserved for close friends and family members. Many people in the former Soviet Union area consider Smiling at strangers in public to be unusual and even suspicious behavior. Whereas Smiling freely is far more prevalent in Europe, some see upon it as disagreement. In Southeast Asian cultures, a SMILE is frequently used to cover emotional pain.

benefits of smiling

Everyone loves the quote “laughter is the best medicine” and you have probably even experienced the benefits of Smiling and laughter. But did you know that Smiling also triggers activity in your brain! Yes, there’s a serious mind-body connection there, in your left frontal cortex to be exact, which is—not surprisingly—the area of your brain that registers happiness.

1. Neurotransmitters Called Endorphins Are Released When You SMILE

These are triggered by the movements of the muscles in your face, which is interpreted by your brain, which in turn releases these chemicals. Endorphins are responsible for making us feel happy, and they also help lower stress levels. Faking a SMILE or laugh works as well as the real thing—the brain doesn't differentiate between real or fake as it interprets the positioning of the facial muscles in the same way. This is known as the facial feedback hypothesis. The more we stimulate our brain to release this chemical the more often we feel happier and relaxed.

2. Endorphins Make Us Feel Happier and Less Stressed

They also act as the body's natural pain killers. For sufferers of chronic pain, laughing and smiling can be very effective in pain management, as can laughing off the pain when you bump an elbow or fall over.

3. While The Release Of Endorphins Is Increased, The Stress Hormone Cortisol Is Reduced

Cortisol is more active when we feel stressed or anxious and contributes to the unpleasant feelings we experience, and by lowering it we can reduce these negative feelings.

4. Laughing Expands The Lungs, Stretches The Muscles In The Body And Stimulates Homeostasis

This exercises the body, replenishing the cells from a lungful of oxygen and gaining all the benefits of exercising the body.

5. A Good Laugh Can Be An Effective Way To Release Emotions

A good laugh can help you release emotions, especially those emotions that you might bottle up inside. Everything looks a little bit better after a good laugh and life can be seen from a more positive perspective. Smiling and laughing have positive social implications as well.

6. Smiling Is An Attractive Expression, Which Is More Likely To Draw People To You Rather Than Push Them Away

Smiling makes you appear more approachable. Interaction with others is easier and more enjoyable when SMILES and laughs are shared, and these behaviors are contagious, making others feel better too, and make you a more appealing and attractive person to be around. This in turn will have a positive effect on your well-being.

7. A Happy, Positive Expression Will Serve You Well In Life

This is particularly true for challenging situations such as job interviews: a Smiling, relaxed persona indicates confidence and an ability to cope well in stressful situations. This will also be of benefit in your career, building healthy relationships with colleagues and being seen in a favorable light by your employers.

Laughing is the best medicine.
But if you're laughing for no reason, you need medicine.

7 C's

essentials for experiencing sea of happiness

Life Is Better when you are happy but Life Is At Its Best when other people are happy because of you, be inspired, give love and share your SMILE with everyone!

So what exactly are the critical ingredients for experiencing genuine happiness? Here are seven elements of life that I believe are essential to the attainment of human happiness. Call them the “7 C’s in the pursuit of happiness.”

One is not more important than any of the others.

1. Compassion

In order to evolve into a state of happiness, you must develop your in-born ability to care about life, to value life in all its forms, to engage in loving, kind actions, to cultivate an attitude of what Nobel laureate, Dr. Albert Schweitzer called “reverence for life,” (including your own).

2. Contentment

Inner calm , Peace of mind and heart does not mean acceptance of everything that happens. It does mean letting go of fear. When you live life fearlessly, you experience a kind of peace that permeates every cell of your body, every thought of your mind, every emotion of your heart, every element of your spirit.

3. Connection

Without effectively connecting to other humans, you become less than human yourself. Connection means involving yourself in relationship to everyone around you, connecting to your own inner life, and becoming aware of the environment in which you live. Learn to create high-quality relationships, and your happiness is almost guaranteed.

4. Communication

Communication is our primary method for connection. It increases your knowledge, your understanding, and your awareness. Language is precious. Words are the building blocks of all happiness.

5. Commitment

Oprah Winfrey says that what motivates her to get up in the morning is “my commitment to my life and fulfilling my life purpose.” If one of your life’s purposes is to enhance your happiness, committing your life to the service of others brings more happiness than you can imagine. Happiness requires you commit yourself to something larger than yourself.

6. Consciousness

Most spiritual teachers believe we are living in a sleep-like or dream state. In order to be happy, one must increase one's awareness of life. And the single awareness that is most conducive to happiness is: the impermanence of everything. Life is in a constant state of flux, of change, of rhythm and of evolution.

7. Creativity

Creating your life experience by consciously choosing your thoughts, your actions, your decisions and your attitudes will allow you to attain personal happiness regardless of external circumstances.

The pursuit of happiness is not something you search for or attain from outside your skin. Happiness develops from within. You were born to be happy. You were given life to experience happiness.

Pursuing it is your right. Sail the 7 C's of happiness and the pursuit of it becomes obvious and being alive becomes the happiest of moments

"There is no road in the world that goes to happiness but happiness itself is the only way which goes anywhere in the world. Stay happy always!! "

things to smile about

One SMILE can make all the difference in the world. One SMILE has the power to release stress, calm you down, make you attractive, make someone else happy and believe it or not, Smiling can actually cause happiness. This is why “SMILE at LIFE” has become the Best Motto in the World,

How often do you SMILE in a day? Do you SMILE when you meet new people? When you see your friends? Around your co-workers? How about your significant other? Your face has 44 muscles in it that allow you make more than 5,000 different types of expressions, many of which are SMILEs. Read on for seven reasons why Smiling is good for you, your health and your social life!

1. Smiling Can Make You Happy (Even When You're Not)

Remember that mind-body connection? Well, it turns out that the simple act of Smiling sends a message to your brain that you're happy. And when you're happy, your body pumps out all kinds of feel-good endorphins. This reaction has been studied since the 1980s and has been proven a number of times. In 1984, an article in the journal Science showed that when people mimic different emotional expressions, their bodies produce physiological changes that reflect the emotion, too, such as changes in heart and breathing rate. Another German study found that people felt happy just by holding a small pen clenched in their teeth, imitating a SMILE.

Just remember that the research goes both ways. When the people in the first study frowned, they felt less happy, and in the German study, people who held a pen in their protruding lips, imitating a pout, felt unhappy. So the next time you feel sad or upset, try Smiling. It just might make your body—and therefore you—feel better.

2. Smiling Can Make Others Happy

“When you're Smiling', the whole world SMILEs with you.” Well, it's true. Research shows that Smiling is contagious. Ever been around someone who just had something fantastic happen to him or her? Isn't it almost impossible not to feel good, too? Studies show that something as simple as seeing a friend SMILE can activate the muscles in your face to make that same expression, without you even being aware that you are doing it. Crazy, right?

But remember that this, too, can be for better or for worse. You know the expression “misery loves company”? Frowns act just like Smiles, just with a negative reaction, so choose to SMILE and watch the world SMILE back at you!

3. Smiling Makes You More Attractive

Ever wonder why are we always asked to SMILE in photos? Because people usually look their best—and happiest—when Smiling. So the next time you are about to ask someone on a date, SMILE. It’ll make them feel happier, and you’ll already be more attractive in his or her eyes!

4. Smiling Can Help You De-Stress

The next time you’re stressed about work or realize that your favorite jeans feel a little snug, don’t freak out. Take a few deep breaths and SMILE! Smiling may help to reduce symptoms associated with anxiety. When that SMILE signals to your brain that you’re feeling happy (even though you’re not really feeling happy...yet), your body will usually slow its breathing and heart rate.

Reducing stress is so important for health, too, as it can lower blood pressure, improve digestion and regulate blood sugar. Note that this works during workouts, too! If you’re having a hard time getting through that last rep or getting those final 5 minutes in on the treadmill, Smiling can do wonders!

5. Smiling Can Help You Land A Job

If you’re about to go on a job interview, you may think that your appearance is just about wearing nice clothes. Wrong! You can’t just wear that suit; you have to wear it with a SMILE. In a study published in the December 2009 issue of Personality and Social Psychology Bulletin, people looked at full-body photographs of 123 people they had never met. The people in the photos had one of two expressions: neutral (think your passport photo) or a SMILE. And guess what? When observers saw the photos of Smiling people, they were more likely to think that the person in the photo was likeable, confident, conscientious and stable. Sound like traits most companies want in an employee, right? So the next time you're dressing to impress, make sure to take that beautiful, natural SMILE with you!

6. Smiling Can Lead To Laughter

Have you ever laughed without Smiling? It's pretty impossible to do. And it's funny how a SMILE here and a SMILE there with friends can turn into a whole fit of hysterical laughter. Numerous studies have been done on the health benefits of laughing, including how it acts like a mini workout that burns calories and works the abs. Laughter also helps blood flow, lowers blood sugar levels, reduces stress and improves sleep. It may also raise the level of infection-fighting antibodies in the body, which helps boost your immune system. So the moral of this story is SMILE—and laugh—often!

7. Smiling Just Feels Good

Have you ever found that Smiling just feels good? Go ahead, SMILE now. Doesn't it feel natural? Make you feel happy to be alive? It sure does beat the heck out of a frown.

So the next time you're feeling down or out of sorts, try a SMILE. If you can't find a reason to SMILE, pop in a funny DVD, read the Sunday comics or call a friend. Heck, you may be able to even read the word SMILE and feel better. According to research published in Psychological Science, simply reading certain words may also have the same effect. Just like seeing someone else SMILE makes you SMILE, reading emotion verbs (like SMILE, grin, frown, etc.) can also activate specific facial muscles.

Isn't it time you turn that frown upside down?
Now say "Cheeeese...!"

"SMILE increases value of face, anger spoils beauty of soul, faith is force of life, and confidence is companion of success, so keep Smiling."

ways to tell a funny joke

The human race has only One Effective Weapon, and that is Laughter.

-Mark Twain

If you want to impress somebody, make them laugh. If you want to connect with someone new, make them laugh. If you want to get a raise from your boss, make him laugh. If you want to take yourself out of a completely miserable situation, make yourself laugh. And if you want to change the world, make the world laugh. What's the easiest way to make someone laugh? Tell a joke.

The Anatomy of a Joke and Its Formula

1. Target

Every joke begins with a target, and it can be targeting anything – people, places, ideas, etc. The most important thing to remember here is to relate the target to the person or people you're telling the joke to, so they won't be offended. For example, if you were telling a joke to your friends about your wife, you're friends are going to laugh with you because they can relate. But if you were to tell that same joke to your wife, she's not going to crack a SMILE. She'll just slowly stare you down while you slowly tiptoe out of the room.

2. Situation

Crowd gathered should be organized and mood of crowd should be positive. The age group should be kept in mind before cracking the jokes.

3. Hostility

The essence of a joke is usually going against an idea or a type of person, but because the joke is funny (if you can pull it off the right way), it usually loosens the tension and eradicates all hostile feelings at the end. If you don't get this, ask yourself if you have ever heard of a joke that was between two perfectly happy people? Take a look at these examples and see if you can pinpoint the target and who the joke is making fun of. “Artificial hearts are nothing new. Politicians have had them for years.”

4. Realism

Jokes aren’t funny unless there is some truth in them. You can’t just go in and start telling something ridiculous because first of all, the audience won’t be able to relate to it and secondly, you won’t get a chance to surprise them. Humor is a paradox. It’s funny because you’re juxtaposing the reasonable next to the unreasonable. If you don’t understand this, just remember that the more you can start a joke in serious, casual way, the higher the payoff will be towards the end. For example, imagine if somebody with a straight face walked up to you and said:

“If you think the world is normal, why do hot dogs come in packages of ten and hot dog buns in packages of eight?”

5. Exaggeration

If you have a realistic setup from the previous step, then the next step is to exaggerate the second part of the joke. You want to make it “just a little bit more” out there than what human beings expect. The more you can exaggerate it but not completely ruin it by not saying something that’s completely unrelated or random at the end, the funnier it will be. In essence, could you exaggerate the joke as far as you can and yet make it still believable at the same time?

“You know, it was pretty hot yesterday. I saw a dog chasing after a cat, and they were both walking.”

6. Emotion

Why do human beings laugh? Biologically speaking, it is because there is a release in our emotions. That’s why this step is so crucial. For any joke to be hilarious – I mean out-of-this-room hilarious – you to learn how build up anticipation. You want to person or group of people you’re telling the joke to feel like what’s coming next? You want to keep them guessing, on their toes, biting their nails, and leaning over their seat waiting for an answer that they will expect to hear. Here are some ways to create anticipation.

7. Surprise

Alright so we’ve come to the last step of the joke and perhaps the most vital one and that is the surprise. No surprise, no joke. When you go through steps 1 through 6, your audience or whoever you’re telling the joke to is going to expect something. So what do you do? Give them the unexpected. Imagine if a pitcher threw a ball and right before the batter hits it, it curves, and then flies out of the ball park. It’s sort of like that. The more anticipation and the greater the surprise, the funnier the joke, and the greater the laugh.

No Surprise -

She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head.

She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, “Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?”

Her mother replied, “Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.”

“Momma, is that the reason ALL of grandma’s hairs are white?”

IRISH MIRROR

After living in the remote countryside of Ireland all his life, an old Irishman decided it was time to visit Dublin.

In one of the stores, he picks up a mirror and looks into it.

Not ever having seen a mirror before, he remarked at the image staring back at him.

‘How ‘bout that! He exclaims, ‘Here’s a picture of my Father.’

He bought the mirror thinking it was a picture of his dad, but on the way home he remembered his wife didn’t like his father, so he hung it in the shed, and every morning before leaving to go fishing, he would go there and look at it.

His wife began to get suspicious of his many trips to the shed.

So, one day after her husband left, she went to the shed and found the mirror.

As she looked into the glass, she fumed.

‘So that’s the ugly bitch he’s running around with.’

HOW MAN & WOMAN

FEEL EACH OTHER

A woman marries a man expecting he will change but he doesn’t. To be happy with a man she should understand him a lot and love him little.

MEN are like fine wine: They all start out as grapes, and it is the job of woman to stomp on them and keep them in the dark until they mature into something you’d want to have with dinner.

On the contrary - A man marry woman expecting that she won’t change and she does:

To be happy with a woman, one must love her a lot and not try to understand her at all !

THE TWISTER

Husband : Mom called me just now. Her train will be reaching tomorrow 4AM !

Husband: Not my mom , YOUR MOM is coming !

Wife : Woww! Mom is coming ! It's been more than 2 months I have seen her. Listen na , I have the number of the auto driver please call him and tell him to come in time tomorrow morning. Its good tomorrow is Sunday , even the kids will be at home as they don't have the school. They can play with the Grandmother.

men and difficult woman

A brand new store has just opened in New York City that sells Husbands. When women go to choose a husband, they have to follow the instructions at the entrance:

“You may visit this store ONLY ONCE!” There are 6 floors and the value of the products increase as you ascend the flights. You may choose any item from a particular floor, or may choose to go up to the next floor, but you CANNOT go back down except to exit the building! So, a woman goes to the Husband Store to find a husband.

On the 1st floor the sign on the door reads - Floor 1 - These men have jobs.

The 2nd floor sign reads - Floor 2 - These men Have Jobs and Love Kids.

The 3rd floor sign reads - Floor 3 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids and are extremely good looking.

“Wow,” she thinks, but feels compelled to keep going.

She goes to the 4th floor and the sign reads:

Floor 4 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Good Looking and Help with Housework.

“Oh, mercy me!” she exclaims, “I can hardly stand it!”

Still, she goes to the 5th floor and sign reads:

Floor 5 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Gorgeous, help with Housework and Have A Strong Romantic Streak.

She is so tempted to stay, but she goes to the 6th floor and the sign reads:

Floor 6 - You are visitor 31,456,012 to this floor. There are no men on this floor. This floor exists solely as proof that women are impossible to please. Thank you for shopping at the Husband Store.

It's not over yet, To avoid gender bias charges, the store's owner opens a New Wives store just across the street.

The 1st floor has wives that love.

The 2nd floor has wives that love and have money.

The 3rd through 6th floors have never been visited!!

P : In the evening, after you go back home from office, what do you do ?

PRESENTATION MATTERS

2 Woman friends chatting in office

Woman 1: I had a fine evening, how was yours?

Woman 2: It was a disaster. My husband came home, ate his dinner in 3 minutes & fell asleep in 2 minutes. How was yours?

Woman 1: Oh it was amazing!

My husband came home and took me out for a romantic dinner.

After dinner we walked for an hour. When we came home he lit the candles around the house. It was like a fairy tale!

At the same time, their husbands are talking at work

Husband 1: How was your evening?

Husband 2: Great. I came home, dinner was on the table, I ate & fell asleep. What about you?

Husband 1: It was horrible. I came home, there's no dinner, they cut the electricity because I forgot to pay the bill; so I took her out for dinner which was so expensive that didn't have money left for a cab. We walked home which took an hour & when we got home remember there was no electricity so I had to light candles all over the house!!

WHAT IS CONFIDENCE??

A hypothetical situation where 20 CEOs board an airplane and are told that the flight that they are about to take is the first-ever to feature pilotless technology: "It is an uncrewed aircraft."

Each one of the CEOs is then told, privately, that their company's software is running the aircraft's automatic pilot system.

Nineteen of the CEOs promptly leave the aircraft, each offering a different type of excuse.

One CEO alone remains on board the jet, seeming very calm indeed.

Asked why he is so confident in this first uncrewed flight, he replies: "If it is the same software that's developed by my company's IT systems department, this plane won't even take off!!!!."

That is called Confidence!!!

Those who are controlled by their wives & those who control their wives!

Only 1 man stood in the second Queue...

God said "So you control your wife?"

CHINESE PRODUCTS !

A Chinese man married an African and had a child. Two months later the child passed away.

At the funeral house, the African woman kept sobbing and saying: "I KNEW IT !!! I KNEW IT !!!"

A family member pulled her aside and asked:

"What did you know?" She replied: "That, Chinese products don't last long!!"

'I FEEL JUST LIKE A NEWBORN BABY.'

Two elderly gentlemen from a retirement center were sitting on a bench under a tree when one turns to the other and says: 'Slim, I'm 83 years old now and I'm just full of aches and pains. I know you're about my age. How do you feel?'

Slim says, 'I feel just like a newborn baby.'

'Really!? Like a newborn baby!?'

'Yep. No hair, no teeth, and I think I just wet my pants.'

A SENIOR CITIZEN SAID TO HIS EIGHTY-YEAR OLD BUDDY

'So I hear you're getting married?' 'Yep!'

'Do I know her?' 'Nope!'

'This woman, is she good looking?' 'Not really.'

'Is she a good cook?' 'No, she can't cook too well.'

'Does she have lots of money?' 'Nope! Poor as a church mouse.'

'Well, then, is she good in bed?' 'I don't know.'

'Why in the world do you want to marry her then?' 'Because she can still drive!'

I am in a well here and hoping you are in the same well there. I'm writing this letter slowly because I know you cannot read fast.

Ha Beta, today our family friend Jeswanth Singh's Janmadin, his bevi phoned up and invited all of us. As she told me that it is a surprise party. I want to give her surprise and went to party in night dress. All people are badmash, they are seeing only me and not others. That girl who dressed up so well told me to cut my night dress to half and it will be fashion and all will compliment me. I did so with her help and the host did not like it and she gave me a new sari, what she received as gift. Beta, you know these days what type of dresses these girls wear.

By the by I saw one beautiful ladki in pinkish middy and she is too good to be your wife. I asked her whether she will marry you, she felt very shy and ran away from me. She was avoiding me and ran pillar to post and I could not chase her. My worry is I have seen her in pink dress and if she wear other color dress, how can I identify her. I don't know whether I can catch her at all.

We don't live where we did when you left home. Your dad read in the newspaper that most accidents happen 20 miles from home, so we moved 20 miles.

I won't be able to send the address as the last sardar who stayed here took the house numbers with them for their new house so they would not have to change their address. Hopefully by next week we will be able to bring our earlier address plate here, so that our address will remain same too.

This place is really nice. It even has a washing machine, situated right above the commode. I'm not sure it works. Last week I put in 3 shirts, pulled the chain and haven't seen them since.

The weather here isn't too bad. It rained only twice last week. The first time it rained for 3 days and second time for 4 days.

The coat you wanted me to send you, your Aunt said it would be a little too heavy to send in the mail with all the metal buttons, so we cut them off and put them in the pocket.

Your father has another job. He has 500 men under him. He is cutting the grass at the cemetery.

By the way, I took Babi, to our club's poolside. The manager is really badmash. He told her that two-piece swimming suit is not allowed in this club. We were confused as to which piece should we remove?

Your sister had a baby this morning. I haven't found out whether it is a girl or a boy so I don't know whether you are an Aunt or Uncle.

Your uncle, Jetinder fell in a nearby well. Some men tried to pull him out, but he fought them off bravely and drowned. We cremated him and he burned for three days.

Your best friend, Balwinder, is no more. He died trying to fulfill his father's last wishes. His father had wished to be buried at sea after he died. And your friend died while in the process of digging a grave for his father.

There isn't much more news this time. Nothing much has happened.

You write news there slowly, as I can't read it fast.

P.S.: Beta I was going to send you some money but by the time I realized, I had already sealed off this letter.

TO HAVE A FIGHT BETWEEN HUSBAND AND WIFE INSTEAD OF RESORTING TO PHYSICAL FORCE...!

POEMS written by WIFE and HUSBAND.

WIFE:

I wrote your name on sand it got washed.

I wrote your name in air, it was blown away.

Then I wrote your name on my heart I got Heart Attack.

HUSBAND:

God saw me hungry, he created pizza.

He saw me thirsty, he created Pepsi.

He saw me in the dark, he created light.
He saw me without problems, he created YOU.

WIFE:

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star
You should know what you are
And once you know what you are
Mental hospital is not so far

HUSBAND:

The rain makes all things beautiful.
The grass and flowers too.
If rain makes all things beautiful
Why doesn't it rain on you?

WIFE:

Roses are red; Violets are blue
Monkeys like you should be kept in a zoo.
Don't feel so angry, you will find me there too
Not in the cage but outside, laughing at you
Every time I see your face.
I wish I were in outer space
Kind, intelligent, loving and hot.
This describes everything you're not.
I see your face when I am dreaming.
That's why I always wake up screaming.
My feelings for you no words can tell.
Except for maybe 'go to hell.'

god's great sense of humor!!!...

God was in the process of creating the universe.
And he was explaining to his subordinates
Look everything should be in Balance
For example, after every 10 deer there should be a lion.
Look here my fellow angels....
Here is the country of the United States .
I have blessed them with prosperity and money. But at the same time I have given them insecurity & tension..

And here is Africa . I have given them beautiful nature.

But at the same time, I have given them climatic extremes.

And here is South America . I have given them lots of forests. But at the same time, I have given them lesser Land so that they would have to cut off the forests...

So you see fellows, everything should be in balance.

One of the angels asked...

'God, what is this extremely beautiful country here?'

God said..... 'Ahah...that is the crown piece of all.

'INDIA ',

My most precious creation.

It has understanding & friendly people Sparkling streams and serene mountains.

A culture which speaks of the great tradition that they live.

Technologically brilliant, and with a heart of gold.....

The angel was quite surprised: 'But God you said everything should be in balance.'

God replied -- 'Look, I have given them....."POLITICIANS"

BARBER & SWISS BANK ACCOUNT

While hair cutting, official Barber asked Kapil Sibal : Sir, “What’s this Swiss Bank” issue?

Kapil Sibal shouted, “YOU, you are cutting hair or making inquiry?”

Barber: Sorry Sir, I just asked.

Next day, while cutting the hair, he asked Pranab Mukherjee, “Sir, what is the Black money issue?”

Pranab shouted, “Why did you ask me this question?”

Barber: “Sorry Sir, just asked you”

Next day, CBI interrogated the Barber, “Are you an agent of Baba Ramdev?” Barber: No Sir.

CBI: Are you the agent of Anna? Barber: No Sir.

CBI: Then while cutting the hair, why you ask Congress Ministers about, Swiss Bank and Black money issues?

Barber: Sir, I do not know why, when I ask about Swiss Bank or Black money, Congress Ministers’ hairs stand up straight; and that helps me to cut the hair easily; that’s why I go on asking.

ant & grasshopper

The Ant works hard in the withering heat all summer building its house and laying up supplies for the winter. The Grasshopper thinks the Ant's a fool and laughs dances plays the summer away.

Come winter, the shivering Grasshopper calls a press conference and demands to know why the Ant should be allowed to be warm and well fed while others are cold and starving.

NDTV, BBC, CNN show up to provide pictures of the shivering Grasshopper, next to a video of the Ant in his comfortable home with a table filled with food.

The World is stunned by the sharp contrast. How can this be that this poor Grasshopper is allowed to suffer so?

Arundhati Roy stages a demonstration in front of the Ant's house.

Medha Patkar goes on a fast along with other Grasshoppers demanding that Grasshoppers be relocated to warmer climates during winter .

Mayawati states this as 'injustice' done on Minorities.

Amnesty International and Koffi Annan criticize the Indian Government for not upholding the fundamental rights of the Grasshopper.

The Internet is flooded with online petitions seeking support to the Grasshopper (many promising Heaven & Everlasting Peace for prompt support as against the wrath of God for non-compliance) .

Opposition MPs stage a walkout. Left parties call for 'Bengal Bandh' in West Bengal and Kerala demanding a Judicial Enquiry.

CPM in Kerala immediately passes a law preventing Ants from working hard in

The heat was so much, as to bring about equality of poverty among Ants and Grasshoppers.

Lalu Prasad when he was Railway Minister, allocates one free coach to Grasshoppers on all Indian Railway trains, aptly named as the 'Grasshopper Rath'.

Finally, the Judicial Committee drafts the 'Prevention of Terrorism

Against Grasshoppers Act'[POTAGA], with effect from the beginning of the winter.

Arjun Singh makes 'Special Reservation' for Grasshoppers in Educational Institutions in Government Services.

The Ant is fined for failing to comply with POTAGA and having nothing left to pay his retroactive taxes, it's home is confiscated by the Government and handed over to the Grasshopper in a ceremony covered by NDTV, BBC, CNN.

Arundhati Roy calls it 'A Triumph of Justice'.

Lalu calls it 'Socialistic Justice'.

CPM calls it the 'Revolutionary Resurgence of the Downtrodden'

Koffi Annan invites the Grasshopper to address the UN General Assembly.

Many years later...

The Ant has since migrated to the US and set up a multi-billion dollar Company in Silicon Valley, 100s of Grasshoppers still die of starvation despite reservation somewhere in India , ...AND

As a result of losing lot of hard working Ants and feeding the Grasshoppers, India is still a developing country...!!

three old men went to see god

The first old man, an American, asked God when will his country come out of recession. "100 years," God said. The American started weeping profusely. "I will not live to see that day".

Second man, a Russian asked God "When will my country become prosperous?" "Fifty years," came the reply. Russian too started weeping profusely. "I will not live to see that day".

Finally the Indian asked God, "When will my country become corruption-free?" God started weeping profusely. "I will not live to see that day".

the speech of president mugabe!

True Story:

1. Racism will never end as long as white cars are still using black tyres.
2. Racism Will never end as long we still wash first white clothes, then other colors later.
3. Racism will never end if people still use black to symbolize bad luck and WHITE for peace!
4. Racism will never end if people still wear white clothes to weddings and black clothes to funerals.

5. Racism will never end as long as those who don't pay their bills are blacklisted not White listed. Even when playing the pool (snooker), you haven't won until you sink the black ball, and the white ball must remain on the table.

BUT I don't CARE, SO LONG AS I'M STILL USING WHITE TOILET PAPER TO WIPE -----I 'M STILL FINE!

what happens in reality?

Most 'First Class' students get technical seats, some become Doctors and some Engineers, some Chartered Accountants. They all work professionally and contribute for the growth of the nation and so also for themselves.

- The students who pass in 'Second Class' take for civil services such as IAS/IRS/IPS etc., and they become administrators, and control entire Administration and in the process they control the first category i.e Professionals.
- The students who pass in 'Third Class' having no scope for the Professionals/ Administrators, they enter into politics and become Politicians and may become Ministers and control both first category i.e Professionals and the second category i.e Administrators.
- Last, but not the least, The students who are 'Failures', having no options available, join the underworld and control all the above first, second & third category.

That is the way of life, When will it change?

the paradox of our age

We have bigger houses but smaller families;
More convenience, but less time;
We have more degrees, but less sense;
More knowledge, but less judgment;
More experts, but more problems;
More medicines, but less healthiness;
We've been all the way to the moon and back;
But have trouble crossing the street to meet the new neighbor.
We build more computers to hold more information to produce
More copies than ever but have less communication.
We have become long on quantity, but short on quality.
These are times of fast foods but slow digestion;
Tall men but short character;
Steep profits, but shallow relationship

HEARING AID - 1

An elderly gentleman.... Had serious hearing problems, for a number of years. He went to the doctor and the doctor was able to have him fitted for a set of hearing aids that allowed the gentleman to hear 100%

The elderly gentleman went back in a month to the doctor and the doctor said, 'Your hearing is perfect.. Your family must be really pleased that you can hear again.' The gentleman replied, 'Oh, I haven't told my family yet. I just sit around and listen to the conversations. I've changed my will three times!'

HEARING AID - 2

Diwakar was worried that his wife was having an hearing problem and he thought she might need a hearing aid. Not quite sure how to approach her, he called the family Doctor to discuss the problem. The Doctor told him there is a simple informal test the husband could perform to give the Doctor a better idea about her hearing loss. "Here's what you do," said the Doctor, "stand about 40 feet away from her, and in a normal conversational speaking tone see if she hears you. If not, go to 30 feet, then 20 feet, and so on until you get a response.."

That evening, his wife was in the kitchen cooking dinner, and Diwakar thought of testing the same. Making sure he is 40 feet away, "Honey, what's for dinner?" No response.... So also from 30 feet, 20 feet, & 10 feet there was no response. So he walks right up behind her, "Honey, what's for dinner?" "For God's sake Diwakar, its the FIFTH time I am telling you, its 'AALOO PARATHA'!"

'Where's my toast?'

Couple in their nineties, are both having problems remembering things. During a checkup, the doctor tells them that they're physically okay, but they might want to start writing things down to help them to remember..

Later that night, while watching TV, the old man gets up from his chair. 'Want anything while I'm in the kitchen?' he asks.

'Will you get me a bowl of ice cream?' 'Sure..'

'Don't you think you should write it down so you can remember it?' she asks. 'No, I can remember it.'

'Well, I'd like some strawberries on top, too. Maybe you should write it down, so as not to forget it?'

He says, 'I can remember that. You want a bowl of ice cream with strawberries.'

'I'd also like whipped cream. I'm certain you'll forget that, write it down?' she asks.

Irritated, he says, 'I don't need to write it down, I can remember it! Ice cream with strawberries and whipped cream - I got it, for goodness sake!'

Then he toddles into the kitchen. After about 20 minutes, The old man returns from the kitchen and hands his wife a plate of bacon and eggs.. She stares at the plate for a moment. 'Where's my toast?'

the car keys

Several days ago as I left a meeting at our church, I desperately gave myself a personal TSA pat down. I was looking for my keys.

They were not in my pockets or purse. A quick search in the meeting room revealed nothing.

Suddenly I realized, I must have left them in the car. Frantically, I headed for the parking lot. My husband, David, has scolded me many times for leaving the keys in the ignition. My theory is the ignition is the best place not to lose them. His theory is that the car will be stolen.

As I burst through the doors of the church, I came to a terrifying conclusion. His theory was right. The parking lot was empty.

I immediately called the police. I gave them my location, confessed that I had left my keys in the car, and that it had been stolen.

Then I made the most difficult call of all, "Honey," I stammered. I always call him "honey" in times like these. "I left my keys in the car, and it has been stolen."

There was a period of silence. I thought the call had been dropped, but then I heard David's voice. "Betty" he barked, "I dropped you off!"

Now it was my time to be silent. Embarrassed, I said, "Well, come and get me."

David retorted, "I will, as soon as I convince this policeman I have not stolen your car!"
